

Rev 15:1 Then I saw another sign in heaven, great and amazing, seven angels with seven plagues, which are the last, for with them the wrath of God is finished.

“God's wrath has been poured out upon the earth for sometime now. But after this final sign, there's no more left. And that news is both great and marvelous. -Skip Heitzig

1 Cor 15:57 But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Rev 15:2 And I saw what appeared to be a sea of glass mingled with fire—and also those who had conquered the beast and its image and the number of its name, standing beside the sea of glass with harps of God in their hands.

Rev 15:3 And they sing the song of Moses, the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, "Great and amazing are your deeds, O Lord God the Almighty! Just and true are your ways, O King of the nations!"

Rev 15:4 Who will not fear, O Lord, and glorify your name? For you alone are holy. All nations will come and worship you, for your righteous acts have been revealed.”

Psalm 9:1 I will give thanks to the Lord with my whole heart; I will recount all of your wonderful deeds.

Psalm 97:12 Rejoice in the Lord, O you righteous, and give thanks to his holy name!

“As Moses sang in triumph after Israel's Egyptian enemies have been swallowed up by the Red Sea (see EX 15), followers of Christ from the tribulation will sing at the prospect of Satan, the antichrist, and a false prophet being overwhelmed with judgment.” -Tony Evans

Rev 15:5 After this I looked, and the sanctuary of the tent of witness in heaven was opened,

Rev 15:6 and out of the sanctuary came the seven angels with the seven plagues, clothed in pure, bright linen, with golden sashes around their chests.

Rev 15:7 And one of the four living creatures gave to the seven angels seven golden bowls full of the wrath of God who lives forever and ever,

Rev 15:8 and the sanctuary was filled with smoke from the glory of God and from his power, and no one could enter the sanctuary until the seven plagues of the seven angels were finished.

Matt 16:27 For the Son of Man is going to come with his angels in the glory of his Father, and then he will repay each person according to what he has done.

John 5:22;27 For the Father judges no one, but has given all judgment to the Son... And he has given him authority to execute judgment, because he is the Son of Man.

John 3:17-18 For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him. Whoever believes in him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God.

Rev 16:1 Then I heard a loud voice from the temple telling the seven angels, "Go and pour out on the earth the seven bowls of the wrath of God."

John 3:3 Jesus answered him, "Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born again he cannot see the kingdom of God."

Eph 2:8-9 For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, not a result of works, so that no one may boast.

Heb 10:31 It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

“The plagues in this last series of divine judgments are meant to punish sin and remake the world. The plagues are poured out of seven bowls, shallow saucers that could be emptied quickly. This tells us that these final judgment will come in rapid succession, a blitz of devastating judgment.” - Skip Heitzig
